1. On 30 August two express trains collided near Ljubljana, resulting in a death toll of 90 persons. The accident was generally attributed to Cominform sabotage.
2. In the middle of August the Yugoslav Government established flying mobile police squads which were assigned specifically to the task of seeking out and arresting Cominformists. The squads use motorcycles and Morris trucks equipped with radio.
3. Recruitment for the squads was extended to all anti-Soviet elements, even to members of the White Guard.
